Cancellation Policy for Washington trips

While we hate to do it, we have to put this in writing and hope that we don't ever have to discuss or enforce it. During our high season, we are at times booked out a couple months in advance for many of our trips. By having us hold a day for you, we turn business down on the assumption that you are going on this trip.

We require a credit card on file and collected a 50% deposit on all trips, classes and schools to be considered booked, balance collected 2 weeks prior to trip.

All bookings within 2 weeks of trip date, full payment required.

- 1. Cancellation 2 weeks out — No Penalty
- 2. Cancellation 7 days out — Forfeiture of deposit, applicable towards a reschedule within 6 months of original scheduled date
- 3. Cancellation within 7 days — Loss of 100% of trip cost, applicable towards a reschedule within 6 months of original scheduled date
- 4. Day of cancellation by guide due to weather or other circumstances — No penalty

EWA management can cancel trips, schools or classes due to weather or other extenuating circumstances with no penalty to you.
