

Our EWA Cancellation Policy

Cancellation Policy for Washington and PNW based trips

While we hate to do it, we have to put this in writing and hope that we don't ever have to discuss or enforce it.

During our high season from January to end of October, we are at times booked out a couple months in advance for most of our trips. By reserving a date we will turn business away for that date on the assumption it is already spoken for.

We fish when tired and exhausted and in the rain, snow, sleet or shine. If we feel unable to deliver the caliber of experience we are accustomed to providing we will cancel a trip under those circumstances with a full refund. Otherwise we plan on fishing!

We require FULL payment on all trips, classes and schools to be considered booked unless other arrangements with a manager have been made.

Cancellation outside of 2 weeks of scheduled date(s) – Full Refund or reschedule within 12 months.

Cancellation within 2 weeks of scheduled date(s) – Reschedule within 12 months or forfeiture of full payment.

Under emergencies or unforeseen circumstances other arrangements can be made. We are not out to take money without rendering our services but we also have to protect our business.

Thank you for your understanding, any questions, please ask and we look forward to spending time on the water with you soon.
